

Brian Butler & Paul Green Blues Duo

Acoustic blues with guitarist Brian Butler and harmonica player Paul Green. They play traditional and original blues with fire and commitment.

Paul and Brian have performed for years in the Northwest, Paul with his polished band Straightshot and Brian with his NW favorite, the Brian Butler Blues Band. They are esteemed by blues fans for their passion, commitment and authenticity and are both Washington Blues Society award winners.

Brian contributes original songs like "Too Many Trips" and "When The Wind Blows" and drives the rhythms on guitar. Paul's harmonica turns up the heat with inspired improvisations. Their spirited vocal harmonies complete their rockin' and passionate music.
